

Boothbay Harbor AWAITS

Experience the best of mid-Maine with a stay in Boothbay Harbor's Topside Inn.

With fresh lobsters, boat-filled harbors, and seemingly unending scenic vistas, nothing screams summer quite like the rocky coasts of Maine. Slightly off the beaten path and away from some of Maine's more popular tourist towns is Boothbay Harbor, just over an hour's drive north of Portland. Here awaits an idyllic place to rest, recharge, and invigorate your sense of wanderlust for the ultimate Maine experience. Part of that experience includes a respite at the Topside Inn, which literally sits "above it all." The cozy hilltop inn, decked in an subtle, elegant nautical design, is owned by

EXPLORING MAINE

From cozy streets laden with art galleries to docks with guided boat tours, Boothbay Harbor has all you need for a fun-filled getaway. However, if you're looking to venture outside of the quiet coastal village and explore more of Maine's stunning vistas, popular tourist sites are just a short drive away. The charming town of Kennebunkport and the foodie heaven of Portland are among our favorites. While lighthouses dapple the state's rocky coast, the most iconic is the Portland Head Light at Cape Elizabeth—just 20 minutes south of Portland. As one of the most photographed lighthouses in the world, it's easy to get lost in the romantic, dreamlike setting.

Brian “Buzz” Makarewicz and Mark Osborn. This couple always knew they wanted to own an inn. Little did they know it would be this hilltop dream. Buzz and Mark treat guests like family friends, starting the day with a delicious gourmet breakfast and tips on local ventures. With charming well-equipped rooms, it will be tempting to stay inside and relax, but the inn's front lawn will beckon you outdoors with one of the best views of the harbor and a delightful place to unwind in the evening. A short walk or drive from the inn offers something for everyone—art galleries, ice cream shops, and guided boat tours for spotting puffins, whales, and seals. Boothbay Harbor's beauty is truly unmatched, so, if you're headed to the Northeast, this summer is the perfect time to explore Maine for yourself. 📍
